Recognizing that:

- Dr. Horn is a psychologist who works for Arlington Catholic Charities. He comes once per semester to give a talk about a current issue within Catholic counseling services.

- On November 2nd he will be speaking about counseling individuals with homosexual attraction.
- Last semester, an estimated 50 persons came to this event, including about 40 current counseling students and about 10 undergraduate psychology students.
- This event served to recruit more psychology students to enroll in our counseling program, and educated on various issues in the counseling world today.
- Estimated amount of persons: 40.
